

ONE TEAM. ONE MISSION.

HOW DEPARTMENTS WORK TOGETHER TO DELIVER EXCEPTIONAL PARKS & RECREATION SERVICES

What does it take for a parks and recreation department to successfully serve its community? Begin the day with a panel discussion featuring North Liberty Parks & Recreation staff representing administration, parks maintenance, aquatics, and recreation programming.

Panelists will share how their divisions collaborate, communicate, and work toward a common mission while discussing real-world challenges and successes. The session will also include an interactive roundtable, giving attendees the opportunity to share how their own agencies approach similar topics, exchange ideas, and learn from one another's experiences.

In the afternoon, put ideas into practice with guided tours of Centennial Park Hy-Vee Center & Splashpad, the Community Center, and Penn Meadows Park, where you'll see facilities, amenities, and programming spaces that support community engagement and quality recreation experiences.
